The Department of Human Services and other agencies can help older pennsylvanians, individuals with disabilities, those with low incomes, or those experiencing homelessness with rental payments, home modifications and repairs, or with finding an affordable home through programs provided directly in the community.

SOME EXAMPLES OF AVAILABLE RESOURCES INCLUDE:

- Quick Start Housing Resources can assist in finding local housing-related resources.
  - PA Housing Search can help individuals find a new, affordable place to live.
- Home- and community-based services can help older Pennsylvanians and people with disabilities live in their communities.
  - Community Action agencies, or county assistance offices, can help prevent or end homelessness.
